

Club	Description	Sponsor	Additional Information
AHS Student Government (SGA)	The AHS SGA is a student-led government organization committed to advocating for student needs and concerns, coordinating with AHS for special events (like Homecoming), and supporting various service projects throughout the year. Officer meetings are held weekly on Tuesday mornings from 7:45 AM - 8:25 AM. There are yearly elections in the spring for officer positions, and also opportunities for student SGA volunteers to serve on SGA committees (committees meet on Wednesday club days).	Bill Van Cleve & Jessica Williams	Elections for officer positions occur in the spring. Interviews for "Appointed Positions (Secretary, Treasurer, Communications and Historian) occur in the spring as well. Volunteers meet on Wednesday Club days for the 3 SGA committees: Social, Service, and JEDI (Justice, Education, Diversity & Inclusion)
Amnesty Club	Amnesty International is a global movement of more than 10 million people in over 150 countries and territories who campaign to end abuses of human rights. The AHS/SILSA branch focuses on educating people about these injustices and possible solutions.	Bart Murphy
Black Student Union (BSU)	Asheville High BSU is a club where Black Students can come to make friends, share in a safe space and become better involved in our own community here at Asheville High. We also invite non black allies to have hard conversations and teach our peers how to be better allies. BSU is for the betterment of all and we would love to have you!	Clarissa Gilliam & Kedar Peoples
Chess Club	Decompress with chess!	Natalie Ayscue & Carrie Younts
Cougar Nation	Cougar Nation is a club promoting school spirit and school related activities. We promote an inclusive, kind, competitive atmosphere to make school events fun. Currently, we are under the SGA umbrella. Come join us to have a say in sporting event themes, fun activities, and contribute to make sports and events better!	Bailey Thomas

Design and Color Club	The Design and Color offers students a platform to unleash their creativity through designing apparel and various items while also exploring the fascinating realm of colors and color combinations. Participants not only showcase their artistic talents but also delve into the nuances of color theories and schemes.	Tenesha Simpson Wilson	Applications available at the beginning of the school year.
El Club Espanol (The Spanish Club)	We are a club that celebrates the hispanic culture and contributes to the Hispanic community in Asheville	Macon Looper
Ecology Club	Participate in campus recycling efforts and create amazing projects! Contribute to the school community!	Cindy Byron
Filmmaking Club	Our main focus will be producing student-made short films. Students interested in any aspect of the film are welcome (no experience required).	Ashley Hanna	We meet on A weeks in room 404
Future Farmers of America (FFA)	Learn about and be involved in agriculture, sustainability, volunteering, and being involved in the community.	Traci Bricker	Meetings are open to anyone; official organization is only open to students who have taken an agriculture class.
Gender Sexuality Alliance (GSA)	GSA is an inclusive group of students who are committed to gender and sexuality equity in our campus and larger community.	Sarah Duffer & Kallum Brockett	We meet on A weeks in room 503
Girl Up	AHS Girl Up is part of the United Nations club that helps empower girls along their journey from local leaders to national change makers. We do this by raising awareness through advocacy, fundraising, and communication efforts. We also have speakers and student presentations about gender equity issues.	Lizzie Rogers
Girls Who Code	Our Clubs encourage girls to impact their community in a positive way through code. Girls engage in fun and simple online coding tutorials, build community through interactive activities, and learn about inspiring role models in the technology industry. The girls then work together to design and complete a "Girls Who Code Project," where they apply their new coding skills to solve a real-world problem they care about.	John Moody	We meet on A weeks in room 401. On B weeks we meet on Tuesday morning at 8 AM in room 401.

Glitter Sisters	Our mission at Glitter Sisters is to G.L.O. W. - Girls Leading Our World. Centered on BIPOC voices, we are committed to helping girls develop self-love and leadership capacity through mentorship, education, and community service.	Nicole Cush	Website Link: https://sites.google.com/acsgmail.net/theglittersisters/about?authuser=0 Contact: nicole.cush@acsgmail.net
Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA)	A student-led global organization that provides a unique program of leadership development, motivation and recognition. HOSA provides opportunities for students to develop, practice and refine their technical, leadership and teamwork skills. We also participate in blood drives, community outreach, guest speakers and more. If you are interested in a healthcare career, HOSA is here to help.	Sharon Flowe	$20 to join. Contact: sharon.flowe@acsgmail.net
Interact	We are a club that gathers opportunities for community service and presents these opportunities for AHS/SILSA students. We are linked with the Rotary Club of Asheville.	Jacob Kerber	Meets every other Wednesday morning @8am in Room 311.
International Thespian Society	AHS/SILSA - ITS is a troupe of theatre students who want to support and be a part of the theatre program at AHS. This internationally recognized organization meets 2 times a month to further the theatre program and publicize productions. Students in this society may attend the regional and state wide conferences and compete in the ITS thespian Festival.	Lori Hilliard	Students are eligible after 100 hours of theatre work. At least 50 hours must be with AHS productions.

Med Life	AHS/SILSA MEDLIFE is a chapter of the MEDLIFE Movement, a nonprofit organization that aims to break down barriers in access to healthcare, education, and medicine on a global scale. This MEDLIFE chapter not only focuses our efforts on Latin American countries, but also on our community right here in Asheville! To help MEDLIFE and their partner, communities break down barriers chapters usually host Power Hour fundraisers 1-2 times a year. Like telethons, we call, email, and text people to ask for donations. So far, we've raised nearly $2000. Every year, we will also try to go on a Service Learning Trip. A Service Learning Trip is a one-week trip to a Latin American country, where we will learn more about the disparities that communities face and aid healthcare workers in mobile medical clinics.	Sharon Flowe
Mountain Biking Team (Pisgah Range)	The mountain biking team is under umbrella of the Buncombe County youth mountain biking team, PISGAH RAGE. Pisgah Rage is part of a much larger organization called NICA (National Interscholastic Cycling Association). NICA is the governing body of the NC league, but is represented in over 20 states. Asheville High is a team within Pisgah Rage and races for Asheville High. For more information about practice times and our season, please go to our website pisgahrage.com. If you wish to join the team, please contact us here: pisgahrage.com/contact.	Macon Looper & Head Coach Abby Walker
National Art Honor Society	The National Art Honors Society is an organization for students who have completed visual arts, ceramics or art history in high school with the purpose of recognizing their artistic abilities and sharing them with the world around us. We meet once a month with community collaborative art projects throughout.	Kristina Shriver	Students must complete 1 visual art credit in high school (art 1/2/3/4 or ceramics 1/2/3/4) to be eligible. Applications are emailed out in April and induction is in May. There is a $12 fee to be a member per approval.

National English Honor Society		Michelle Greener	A week on Thursdays at 8am in room 211. Students that have completed 2 English credits and meet other application criteria can apply and join us. If you are a returning NEHS member, you do not need to reapply. You can begin attending the morning meetings on 3/7. This Spring we are hoping to plan some fun 5th period events and could use your support! https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfev9AOchU5ajjY68Un08kRg8vr4QOndDIMkVngBFIfgrGpA/viewform?usp=sf_link
National Honor Society	The AHS national Honors society is a group of students dedicated to bettering their community through group effort and service. The four key values of National Honor Society are Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character. Applications become available at the end of your sophomore year.	Heidi Freeman, Bart Murphy & Amanda Eller
National Math Honor Society	Mu Alpha Theta is the National High School and Two-Year College Mathematics Honor Society is in more than 2000 schools. High school students in grades 10 through 12, at the school where their permanent record resides, who have completed the equivalent of two years of college preparatory mathematics, including math 1 and 2, and in addition have completed or are enrolled in a still more advanced course, are eligible for membership providing their mathematical work was done with distinction. On the 4-point grading scale, this shall mean at least a 3.0 grade point average.	Carrie Younts
National Science Honor Society	The AHS Science Honors Society is an organization for student who are in an Advanced Science course (AP Physics, AP Chem, AP Bio, Chemistry Special Topics, Zoology etc.) and have an overall 3.0GPA. With the purpose of sharing and learning about science related topics.	TBD	Applications available at the beginning of the school year.

Robotics Team - Glitch 2.0	Glitch 2.0 is a First Robotics competition team open to anyone regardless of skill level. If you are interested in Graphic Design, Business/Marketing, Community Outreach/Volunteering, strategy, or engineering, you should come by and see what Robotics has to offer!	Randy Richards
SILSA National Math Honor Society	Mu Alpha Theta is the National High School and Two-Year College Mathematics Honor Society is in more than 2000 schools. High school students in grades 10 through 12, at the school where their permanent record resides, who have completed the equivalent of two years of college preparatory mathematics, including algebra and geometry, and in addition have completed or are enrolled in a still more advanced course, are eligible for membership providing their mathematical work was done with distinction. On the 4- point grading scale, this shall mean at least a 3.0 grade point average.	Scott Johnston
SILSA National Science Honor Society	The SILSA Science National Honors Society is an organization for student who are in an Advanced Science course (AP Physics, AP Chem, AP Bio, Chemistry Special Topics, Zoology etc.) and have an overall 3.0GPA. With the purpose of sharing and learning about science related topics.	Fritz Robinett and Tucker Waldron
SILSA Student Government Association	The SILSA SGA is a student-led government organization committed to advocating for student needs and concerns, coordinating with AHS for events like Homecoming, and supporting various service projects throughout the year. There are yearly elections for class officers, and there are opportunities for students to serve as class representatives.	Dan Coleman
Ski & Snowboard Team	Students compete in downhill racing at Cataloochee. All intermediate and above skiers and snowboarders are welcome.

Speech & Debate Team	The AHS/SILSA Speech and Debate team has a long legacy of success competing in the National Speech and Debate Association. We offer coaching in many different events. See Mr. Monte for more information!	Nick Montecalvo, Kristy Decker, Phoenix Swedlund
Sports Outreach		Jack Brinkley	Email: sojack@bellsouth.net
Strings Club		Franklin Keel
Sustainability Club	Curious to know more about your impact on the Earth or find ways to be more sustainable?	Dacia Harris
Theatre	AHS/SILSA students are all invited to audition for theatre productions. The Fall Play auditions in September and the student directed/written plays, Quixotica, auditions are in Jan. These auditions are open to all students and meet 3-4 times per week to rehearse. Technical theatre opportunities are available as well by application just after auditions.	Lori Hilliard	Fall Play- (Sept-first week of Nov) Quixotica -(Jan-Feb)
UNICEF AHS/SILSA	The AHS/SILSA UNICEF Club educates, advocates and fundraises on behalf of children in need around the world, so that they have access to basic rights and needs. Our club focuses on raising awareness and funds for access to clean water, nutritious food, education and health care and ending child poverty and trafficking. UNICEF is part of the United Nations global initiative to assist nations and communities lacking in these areas.	Kimberley Fink-Adams	We meet B Week in Room 214.
Hispanic Students Against Discrimination (UNIDOS)	The purpose of UNIDOS: Hispanic Students Against Discrimination is to provide Hispanic students, or any student, with resources, opportunities, and lessons on Hispanic culture/history, Hispanic rights, and information for the pursuit of higher education.	Jerome Hughes & Tracey Barrett	