How Children Learn to Read

Ms. Peeples, Instructional Facilitator

Did you know that reading is primarily an auditory process and not a visual one? Explore the "how" behind becoming a strong reader and learn best practices to support your child with this important skill.

Foundations for Parents

Ms. Ashley, 1st Grade &

Ms. Kickert, 2nd Grade

A, Apple, Ah! Ever wondered what Foundations is all about? Hear from two Claxton teachers about our phonics curriculum, Foundations, and why it plays an important role in how our students learn to read.

Wit & Wisdom

Ms. Jowkar, 3rd Grade &

Ms. Turner, 4th Grade

Hear from two of Claxton's teachers about our new English/Language Arts Curriculum for 3rd - 5th graders. This rigorous curriculum emphasizes writing, arts integration, and authentic texts.

Fun Family Read-Aloud

Jaimee Stanley, Read 2 Succeed

Jacquelyn Hall, Children First
